

The Budapest-based CENTRAL EUROPEAN SERVICE FOR CROSS-BORDER INITIATIVES

opens an internship for

HUMANITIES

students

If

- you want to complete your compulsory internship,
- you are interested in the European Union's language,
- you would participate in the translation of academic texts,
- you want to use your knowledge of Hungarian language at a literary level,
- you would like to build valuable professional relationships:

We look forward to seeing you at CESCOI, a dynamically developing organisation in Central Europe that is at the forefront of cross-border research and regional development!

When considering the application, it is advantageous:

- advanced knowledge of English
- advanced knowledge of one of the neighbouring languages
- knowledge of French and / or German
- high level of knowledge of office software (eg. Word, Excel)
- interest in cross-border cooperation

Applications

accompanied by a CV and a short motivation letter

can be sent through the following page:

<https://budapest.cesci-net.eu/en/about/career/>